Sag Harbor Dining Side Chair

Our Sag Harbor dining armchair is hand-woven in a premium extra-large fiber, making for heavier and more substantial seating than standard outdoor wicker chairs. Chair pairs beautifully with our assortment of teak dining tables, whether they are the golden-brown color of new teak or have weathered to silver-gray. The premium fiber is expertly hand-woven around a sturdy aluminum frame for years of enjoyment. A recommended cushion is sold separately and the chair is packed in quantities of two.
