Description

An elegant, tropical style dining set will make a lovely addition to your bar, patio, kitchen, or formal dining area. The eye-catching table base, made of woven rattan and wicker, creates a whimsical beach or jungle feel, and the table is balanced out with a sleek beveled glass table top for a more modern, chic finish.
 Complementing armchairs feature natural fibers wicker and rattan in the frame, accented by loose cushions with button-tuft detailing. Customize the look of this set with your favorite decorative accents to dress it up or down as the occasion demands.
